

Program Goals

- Promote citizen awareness of the impacts of pollution on lakes and their watersheds.
- Encourage local watershed-based initiatives to control pollution.
- Generate the formation and growth of lake management organizations.
- Provide educational opportunities for citizens to learn about the biological, geological, and sociological relationships between lakes and their watersheds.
- Maintain a database of water quality information for evaluation by concerned individuals, lake management groups, local ,state, and federal agencies.